ASPECT OF THE MEXICAN QUESTION.

The Archduke Maximilian Accepts the Crown of Mexico.

THE POLISH REVOLUTION.

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

The Royal Mail steamer Persia, Capt. LOTT, which left Liverpool at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 15th and Queenstown on the afternoon of the 16th August, arrived here yesterday morning.

The Army and Navy Gazette draws attention to the fact that the Federal Government is pushing forward the construction of some very powerful sea-going Monitors with all possible dispatch.

The ship Vernon, from Sydney, May 1, reports that on June 28, lat. 25° south, long. 30° west, she was boarded by a boat's crew. A man representing himself as an officer of a United States cruiser, demanded the ship's papers. As he was not in uniform this was refused, on which he said his ship would fire into the Vernon. He was then told that if he did not wish his boat towed under water he had better shove off.

On leaving he repeated his threat of firing. The boat's crew stated that the American ship was the Cate, from Valparaiso, four months in commission. The Captain of the Vernon considers that she was a pirate.

The Morning Star says:

"A Plymouth paper, whose statement we quote, calls attention to a rather suspicious sale of three of Her Majesty's steam vessels-of-war out of the navy at that port. Two of these vessels, the Hecla and Merlin, which have been christened the Typhon and Sea Hawk, are said to belong to a London Company, and were advertised for a pleasure trip to the Mediterranean. But that has fallen through, and circumstances justify a suspicion that they are intended for the Confederate Government."

Mr. WILLIAM CORNELL JEWETT had issued a pamphlet setting forth the result of an interview he had with the King of the Belgians to urge His Majesty to aid the scheme for European mediation in America. Mr. JEWETT represents that the King promised to use his influence to induce England to join France and the other European Powers in efforts to secure peace in America.

It is stated that Victoria, Vancouver's Island, is to be the headquarters of the British squadron in the Pacific.

Field-Marshal Lord CLYDE died at Chatham on the 14th inst.

Queen VICTORIA had been spending a day or two with the King of the Belgians, en route for Germany.

A MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.

THE SEA HAWK'S PROPOSED TOUR TO THE MEDITERRANEAN.

The following is the article from the Western Morning News to which the London Star makes reference:

"Within the last few months three steam vessels-of-war have been sold out of the navy at Plymouth by Her Majesty's Government—viz: the Avon, Hecla and Merlin. These vessels are now lying in the basin of the Great Western Docks, being sold out in an effective state, and not merely for the purpose of breaking-up. The Hecla and Merlin have since been rechristened, the former as the Typhoon and the latter as the Sea Hawk. These two vessels are said to belong to a London Company, of whom a Mr. ROBERTS is the representative. The Sea Hawk, which is the only one of the vessels that is fitting out, has been recently brought before the public somewhat prominently. An advertisement has gone the round of the papers setting forth a scheme for a yachting tour to the Mediterranean, Balaclava and the East. Every comfort was to be provided. The vessel, it was said, was 'well known as a superior sea boat, and of great speed while her engines were of the most substantial and powerful character;' baths, ice well, a chaplain, an experienced surgeon, a good band and professed cooks' were to be provided. She was to be 'commanded by a retired naval officer, and a high class engineer and a picked man-of-war's crew were to be engaged.' The vessel referred to was the Sea Hawk, and the day appointed for her leaving Plymouth was the 6th of August. A large number of men have been busily employed upon her, the majority engaged in fitting her up with suitable cabins for the accommodation of passengers. She has been fresh caulked and sheathed with Muntz's patent metal, and her spars are now being got in. The scheme for the tour has, however, apparently fallen to the ground, not more that thirty applications, we are informed, having been made to secure berths. During the past week a large number of the men employed in fitting up the cabins have been discharged, and that work discontinued; but her fitting out otherwise continues. She will, however, not be ready for sea, without her cabin fittings, for at least a month later than her advertised day of sailing. The Sea Hawk, as the Merlin, appeared in the 'Navy List' as a six gun paddle-wheel vessel, of about 1,000 tons and 312 horse power. She was built for the mail service, and was first employed in running between Holyhead and Dublin. She was afterwards employed in carrying mails in the Mediterranean, and subsequently formed part of the West Coast of Africa squadron. She now bears all the usual appearances of a man-of-war, her shot-racks, &c., not having been removed. For some reason a general feeling seems to prevail that she is intended to carry the Confederate flag, and that the tour proposal was only set forth to cover her real destination; but nothing beyond surmises are advanced in support of such a suggestion. An application has been made to the Customs to register her as a British ship, and that request, it is understood, has been complied with."

THE REBEL PRIVATEERS.

DESTRUCTION OF THE BRIG W. E. NASH BY THE FLORIDA.

The following is the report of Capt. COFFIN, of brig W. E. Nash, destroyed by the Florida: "Sailed from New-York, July 3. July 8, latitude 40°, longitude 70°, at 3 P. M., made a steamer to the eastward, standing to the westward, apparently under full head of steam; passed us about five miles off; she had four smoke-pipes, and was a side-wheel boat—the Ericsson chased by the Florida. Soon afterward made another steamer to the eastward, which came along and passed us; soon after she bore up for us, and came alongside, with the stars and stripes flying; hailed us to heave to, as they wished to send a boat aboard, and as the boat bourded us they ran up the Confederate flag on the steamer, and the officer of the boat pronounced us a prize to the Confederate flag; ordered myself and part of my crew to take part of our clothes and my papers and go on board the steamer, which proved to be the Florida. My charts and instruments were confiscated, the brig sacked and then set on fire. They then steered for a schooner in sight, which they found abandoned; she was a whaling schooner, hailed from Provincetown, and was set on fire. They then steered off the coast as fast as possible, under steam and canvas, and landed myself and crew in Bermuda on the 16th of July. The Florida is armed with six broadside guns and two pivots; is not as fast as has been represented, and her machinery is getting out of repair; she does not steam over 8¼ knots; the discipline on board is bad. She, together with a number of blockade runners, were in port. The Florida has transferred a portion of her valuable spoils on board the Robert E. Lee, to be taken to Wilmington."

A SUSPICIOUS VESSEL SPOKEN.

From the Liverpool Journal of Commerce, Aug. 13.

The Marie Ducat, MAGNEN, just arrived at Havre, from Guadaloupe, reports having seen on the 19th of July, in lat. 39° N., lon. 45° W., a wooden steamer, painted black, with a large white band, three-mast schooner-rigged, which hoisted the English flag, but after having examined the Marie Cecile, and borne away, hauled it down, and set the Confederate flag. The Captain of the Sylvia, of this port, reports that on the 12th of July, whilst off Cape Sable, he was spoken by a schooner, about 90 tons, with two guns. After ascertaining the ship's name, and asking if the Captain had spoken any vessels, or had any news of any late battles, she steered away to the southwest. She was supposed to be a Southern privateer, although the American flag was flying at the peak.

BLOCKADE RUNNERS.

THE ALLIANCE.

From the Cork Constitution.

There is now lying at the shipbuilding yard of the Cork Steamship Company, a curious looking craft. She is named the Alliance, and was originally designed for a pleasure steamer to ply on the Mersey, between Liverpool and a place called Eastham. When plying on the Mersey she had a division along the centre from stem to stern, as completely as if her two parts were two separate ships lying side by side. In this space she had a single paddle-wheel, by which alone she was propelled, and this had so much power, added to the lightness of her build, that she had a speed of 20 knots an hour. She had been purchased by a Liverpool firm for the purpose of running the blockade of the Southern ports of America, and to fit her out for this purpose considerable alterations have been made, both in her structure and machinery. The paddle-wheel which was in the centre has been removed; in the space occupied by it a hold has been made, thus filling up the division, and she has been furnished with a pair of paddles, making her appear like the ordinary paddle steamers. She has three funnels placed in the line across between the paddle-boxes. With the view of resisting the rough salutations which are generally dealt out to blockade-runners by the Yankee squadrons, she has been fitted with an outer shell, or coat of timber below the wateriine. The space between this and the vessel nerself can be filled with cotton which, it is considered, will effectually resist the Yankee missiles. To obviate the danger of ignition, this space can be filled with water immediately without in the least disturbing the crew or injuring the cargo. The upper portion of the ve-sel is unprotected; but although this may endanger the lives of the crew and admit of injury to the interior of the vessel, yet there can be very little danger of her going down. The Alliance was on her way to Nassau, but had to put in here on Thursday evening to get some repairs to her machinery.

A VESSEL SAILED,

(From the Cork Examiner.)

Another blockade-runner left Queenstown yesterday, the long, rakish-looking, two-funneled steamer which has been lying in the harbor for the past week, and which came here from the Clyde, on which, it appears, she had been employed in the ordinary river traffic. She looks less able to stand a heavy sea than one of the steamers of our Citizens' River Steamers Company, but is modelled as it possessed of great swiftness. She called into Queenstown nominally for coals.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Nothing decisive is yet known as to Archduke MAXIMILIAN'S acceptance of the Mexican Crown. It was rumored that the Archduke intended to pay a visit to the Emperor NAPOLEON at Biarritz.

The London Morning Post, in a leader on Mexico, says the Archduke MAXIMILIAN is reported to have accepted the Crown of Mexico, and arrangements will be concluded by which France will be indemnified for the cost of the war, and will be paid the sums of money due to creditors, for the recovery of which the French expedition was dispatched to Mexico.

The probability of an alliance between the Southern Confederacy and France has not only been spoken of in America, but in Paris, and if it should take place, it will be attributable, perhaps more than to any other cause, to the Monroe policy, which prohibits the intervention of European Powers in American affairs. The South will be compelled to dismiss all other considerations in presence of the paramount one of securing its independence. France, if threatened by the Government at Washington, would gladly avail herself of so important an ally as the infant Confederacy. At present we cannot pass out of the field of conjecture, but it is certainly far from improbable that the French occupation of Mexico may lead to a more intimate connection between France and the Southern States, and may in time to come exercise considerable influence over the character of American institutions—at least, in the Southern portion of the American continent.

The Paris correspondent of the Morning Post writes that, with the exception of the clerical party, public opinion in France does not support the policy in reference to Mexico, and any alliance with the Confederate States is looked upon as involving France in future difficulties.

The Asterrichische Zeitung of Vienna, in an article on the election of the Archduke MAXIMILIAN, says:

"The acceptance or refusal of the throne is, up to the present, a personal affair with the Archduke. The Austrian Government has in no way interfered in the question, and takes no part in the negotiations relative thereto. The Emperor NAPOLEON, in communicating direct with the Archduke, has also maintained this point of view. Negotiations have been opened solely between the two high personages, and not between France and Austria. The conduct of the Emperor has thus been marked both by courtesy and loyalty. The situation of Mexico might lead at a later period to differences; but all this is irrelevant so long as the matters have a personal character apart from politics."

The Spanish Council of Ministers is said to have approved the new situation that has arisen in Mexico. The Madrid journals are divided upon the subject.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says the Archduke MAXIMILIAN'S acceptance is looked upon as certain. Indeed it is said that the Emperor, in an audience with the Archbishop of Mexico, expressed his persuasion to that effect. There are persons who believe that the acceptance was made sure of before the offer was made.

The General Correspondenz, of Vienna, says that all newspaper assertions are premature, no definite decision having been come to.

THE POLISH QUESTION.

The Paris Constitutionnel announces positively that the French reply to the Russian note had been the first of the answers of the three Powers dispatched to St. Petersburgh; those of Austria and England were only forwarded on the 11th inst. Each Cabinet has replied specially on the arguments addressed particularly to itself, but the three notes terminate with an identical paragraph once more testifying the unity of the views of the three Powers.

Numerous copies of an appeal of Russian patriots to the Poles dated from Moscow, had been widely circulated in Congress Poland. The appeal advises the Poles to desist from a useless struggle and to unite themselves with Russia, in order to establish the greatness of the Sclavonic races and to revenge themselves upon the West, by which Poland is being betrayed. The appeal finally promises the Poles an independent national existence.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says there was a growing belief in Paris that war was not to be apprehended.

It is said that the real cause for putting off the review of the Paris National Guard is the fear of a cry in favor of Poland.

The Globe's Paris correspondent says a pamphlet is preparing by M. THIERS, urging a strict alliance between France and Austria.

La France states that differences have sprung up among the chiefs of the Polish party, and says that the extreme party had the charge of taking the lead in the movement.

The same journal says, further, that the notes of the three Powers would be delivered to Prince GORTSCHAKOFF on the 17th, when they would be immediately published in England, France, Austria and Russia.

On the 5th instant the insurgents gained an important advantage over the Russians at Chelme, in the palatinate of Lubbin. Three Russian companies were dispersed. It is asserted that the Russians, under cover of their artillery, locked up their killed and wounded in a barn, and burned them, in order to conceal their loss.

FRANCE.

The monthly returns of the Bank of France show a decrease of the cash in hand of over fourteen millions of francs, and in the bills discounted a decrease of six millions.

The Emperor was to leave Paris on the 17th for the camp at Chalons. His Majesty had given an audience to the Archbishop of Mexico, prior to the latter's departure for his own country.

The celebrated French painter, EUGENE DELACROIX, is dead.

ITALY.

The London Globe explains that Sir JAMES HUDSON retires from the British Embassy, at his own request, and Government grants him the Grand Cross of the Bath. Subscriptions had been opened at Turin for a testimonial to Sir JAMES.

TURKEY.

OMAR PASHA was seriously ill.

GERMANY.

The following is said to be something like a correct statement of the contents of the reform project proposed by Austria: An Assembly of delegates from all the German Diets, with right of voting, and to be convoked periodically. An Upper House, composed of the representatives of the Sovereigns. This Assembly is to include the former Princes of the German Empire. The direction of Federal affairs to be administered by seven Governors of German States under the Presidency of Austria. The present Federal Diet to be dissolved. A reform of the military organization of the Confederation. Abolition of the article of the German Federal Constitution by which unanimity of the members of the Diet is required for the adoption of measures of general utility to the establishment of organic Federal institutions.

A report was current that Prussia intended to secede from the German Confederation. Animated conferences are said to have taken place between the King and the Crown Prince. The King of Denmark had declined to be present at the conference of the sovereign members of the German Confederacy.

WEST COAST OF AFRICA.

The July mails from the various places on the West Coast of Africa are received. The news is devoid of interest. Trade generally at all points very dull.

INDIA, &c.

The mails from Calcutta, China and Australia are received per Persia. The news has generally been anticipated.

NANA SAHIB had been identified by a Brahmin who had turned Queen's evidence. A plan for a general rising in the cold weather is said to have been organized.

THE DRAFT.

List of Names Drawn Yesterday in the Fifth, Eighth and Ninth Districts.

The Draft in the Fifth District.

Pursuant to official notice, the draft in the Fifth District opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, at No. 413 Broome-street—the new headquarters of the Police, at No. 428, having been found unsuitable for the purpose.

District Marshal Capt. JOHN DUFFY presided, assisted by HENRY P. WEST, Esq., Commissioner; Surgeon JAMES HILTON, M. D., and JAMES J. ROGERS, Deputy Marshal and Recorder, constituting the Board of Enrollment.

The building was guarded by a heavy force of Police, consisting of 12 men from each Ward, from the First to the Fourteenth, making in all 168 men, under the command of Inspector LEONARD and Capt. WILLIAMSON, of the Fourteenth Ward. The upper stories and basement of the house were also occupied by the Third and Sixth United States Regulars, commanded by Capts. JORDAN and MONTGOMERY BAILEY, of the respective regiments. Outside a dense throng surrounded the structure, from which the national flag was displayed. The corridors leading to the draft room were also crowded, and the inner space up to the strong new wooden railing that fenced in the space allotted for officials and reporters, was equally packed with an eager mass of the hard-fisted denizens of the Fourteenth Ward.

At 10 o'clock Marshal DUFFY called to order, and after the reading of the order of the President of the United States, announced that the ballots to be deposited in the wheel would now be counted by a delegation of the citizens of the Seventh Ward, the sub-district to be first drawn. He also took occasion to pledge his word that the most perfect fairness had characterized all the preparations for this draft, and he hoped that the good citizens of his District would manifest a becoming spirit of order and decorum during the proceedings. (Applause.)

Messrs. DANIEL COGER, ELIJAH F. PURDY and Dr. JOHN GALVIN composed the delegation, and at once began to count the ballots.

The quotas for the District were declared to be as follows:

Seventh Ward	979	1st Sub-district
Tenth Ward	767	2d Sub-district
Thirteenth Ward	585	3d Sub-district
Fourteenth Ward	724	4th Sub-district
Total	3,074	names

to be drawn, including the additional 50 per cent.

It was nearly 11 o'clock when Commissioner WEST declared the counting to be complete, and the number of names to be deposited in the wheel 5,617, out of which the 979 for the Seventh Ward, the First Sub-district to be drawn, were to be taken. Commissioner WEST added that he had closely watched the counting and examined the ballots and had found both perfectly correct. It had been suggested outside that the ballots for this District would be upon paper different from that hitherto used. It was, however, precisely the same, and all was right and fair. Mr. PURDY also said aloud, "There is no deception here, gentlemen!" and Mr. GALVIN added his testimony.

Mr. FRANCIS NORMAN, of the Seventh Ward, was then blindfolded and placed beside the wheel in which the ballots had been deposited, and at 11 o'clock it began to revolve.

The first name drawn was PATRICK WALSH, of No. 235 Cherry-street.

Amid general silence the drawing then went on:

LAW REPORTS.

A Bruiser Bruised—Order of Arrest Vacated.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS.

Before Justice Peckham.

James C. Carr vs. John Rine and Richard Caradine.—Motion to vacate an order of arrest. The order of arrest in this action was made on the 26th day of June last, on the affidavits of the plaintiff and Peter Gillen, alleging that, on the 19th day of June, the defendant Rine assaulted the plaintiff and beat him so badly that it required the joint services of three physicians to stop the bleeding of his wounds, and that he was in great danger of losing his life; and for suffering such beating he claims the sum of two thousand dollars, and he unites as defendant Richard Caradine, a wealthy citizen of the neighborhood in which the occurrence took place, and charges him with using words of encouragement to said Rine while he was administering to him the blows complained of. The affidavits read on the part of the defendants show that the plaintiff Carr is a gentleman much skilled in the "manly art of self-defence," and rejoices in the classic sobriquet of "Long Jim," he standing about six feet in his stockings; that his chief occupation is the indulgence of a bad habit of hanging around the drinking saloons thereabouts, and, being a young man of commanding appearance, sailors, as well as landsmen, take delight in paying for his liquor, and when such sailors and others do not thus voluntarily manifest their delight, Mr. Carr indulges himself in thrashing them into an admission of his claims upon their favors. But it sometimes happens that an honest sailor appears upon the scene, who will neither "treat" voluntarily nor by coercion; and so it happened in this case.
The defendant Rine, who is a steward in the merchant service, arrived in this City only the day before, and, on the morning of the occurrence, sauntered out with some friends, when he was met by the plaintiff Carr, who, not finding the defendant willing to waste any of his change to satisfy the plaintiff's appetite, the plaintiff pitched into him summarily, anticipating an easy victory. But he reckoned without his host; for the defendant had somewhere in his travels learned how to protect himself, and before the plaintiff could recover from his surprise he was in the condition in which the three physicians found him—a sad example of the impetuosity of youth.
The affidavits of the neighbors unite in stating that the plaintiff assaulted the defendant without any provocation whatever; that is he an idle, dangerous fellow, often drunk in the streets, a terror to quiet citizens; that he has on several occasions attacked those whom he thought were weak and unable to fight with him, to satisfy his malice, and that he is a dangerous man, whom they all avoid and fear.
The affidavits all show that the defendant Caradine took no part whatever in the affair, but remained at his own house, some distance away, during the whole occurrence.
The Judge granted the motion, and vacated the order of arrest, exonerating the defendants' bail.
J. Solis Ritterband for the motion; C. S. Spencer opposed.

The injunction granted against the officers of the Chicago and Alton Railroad, restraining them from paying the dividend lately declared, it appears, was upon the petition of the holder of a bond of $6,000, and without notice to the Company. Measures are being taken to obtain an immediate hearing, and the Company have no anticipation of any difficulty in having the injunction dissolved as soon as the matter is brought before the Court.

Money was in rather sharp demand to-day on call at 6 ₱ cent., while there was a good inquiry for prime paper at five to five and a half, and not much offering. Gold has ruled a turn higher, but without much activity in the market. The sales at the First Board were at 122¼@122¾, and at the Second at 123@123½. The China to-day, from Liverpool, took out $209,241 16 in specie, against which we have an importation of $229,854 from California by the North Star. In Foreign Exchange there is not much doing, this being the day of the packet departure, and the market scarcely opened for the next, but the tone was steady at 135½@135¾ for bankers' sterling.

By the Persia, arrived this morning, we have advices from England to the evening of the 15th inst. The closing price of Consols in the London market was 94@93½. The latest sales of Illinois Central shares were at 15@16 discount, and of Erie shares at 74½@75½ ₱ cent. Messrs. BARING BROS. & Co. notice the market as without much demand for Government Stocks, the chief business being in railway bonds and shares. The London Economist states that the sales are all for the New-York market. E. F. SATTERTHWAITE remarks, in his weekly circular:

"We have again to report a very firm market for American securities, with an active demand for all classes usually dealt in. Erie shares have been in especial request, and close at an advance of $3 on last week's prices; there have also been numerous inquiries for Atlantic and Great Western bonds, Pennsylvania section, which have touched 76."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The additional news from Charleston, which we publish to-day, is no later, but is confirmatory of that published yesterday. Sumter, on Saturday morning, was an immense ruin. The rear wall was battered down, disclosing to view the interior of the fort, and the front was very badly shattered by shot striking it on the inside. Rebel deserters, captured last week, reported that it was the intention of the rebels to abandon the fort and blow it up. We have no later reports viâ Richmond than those published yesterday.

Rebel dispatches in the Richmond Examiner of the 25th state that the frigate Minnesota and several gunboats bombarded Fort Fisher, below Wilmington, N. C., on Sunday morning. The blockade-running steamer Hebe was ashore near the fort, protected by two small guns and fifty men. A detachment of our forces landed, destroyed the goods already taken out of the steamer, and set her on fire. There was considerable excitement in Staunton, Va., on Monday, by a report that the "Yankees" were near Buffalo Gap, and about to make a raid on the place. There was "nothing in it," however.

A special dispatch to the Louisville Journal, dated Stevenson, Ala., Aug. 23, states that from their look-outs on the mountains, our soldiers could plainly see the rolling stock of the railroad going off southward from Chattanooga. Large fires were plainly seen on the night of the 21st, in the rear of the town. All the fords are strongly guarded by infantry and artillery; rifle pits cover the hill-side in the vicinity of the fords, and the work of crossing our army seemed likely to prove a bloody one. The enemy displayed a disposition to resist the passage of the river, but deserters say that he is removing the greater portion of his troops, leaving small guards to annoy Gen. Rosecrans' army.

Yesterday morning Mosby, with his whole force of guerrillas, said to number now some eight hundred men, attacked a sutler's train between Centreville and Bull Run, captured forty-one wagons with their teams, a number of Government horses, and considerable other property, on its way to the Army of the Potomac.

The somewhat noted rebel Gen. Jeff. Thompson, of Missouri, with his Staff, was captured at Pocahontas, Ark., a day or two ago, by Col. Woodson's cavalry. Several bands of guerrillas were also routed.

The St. Louis Republican states that no part of Gen. Davidson's command ever went to Helena, as has been frequently stated. His Division marched direct from Wittsburgh to the White River, only sending in a train for supplies to Helena. Gen. Davidson's expedition up the river—of two gunboats and a battalion of infantry—captured two rebel steamers, the Tom Suggs and Kaskaskia, in complete running order, and found that Marmaduke had crossed the major part of his cavalry at Searcy. Marmaduke destroyed his bridge of flats. The national troops lost two men killed and five wounded—one naval officer was wounded. Gen. Steele was to leave Helena on the 17th. The enemy were said to be in force and intrenching at Bayou Meta, twelve miles from Little Rock. Davidson's troops were to cross White River on the 17th. Strict discipline in his army had commended him to the favor of the people of Arkansas, and had produced so good an effect that it was believed Arkansas would be easily reclaimed to the government of the Union. The people were much embittered against the marauders and guerrillas of both sides, but if a proper government was instituted, and rallying points were appointed for protection of life and opinion, with the necessary civil machinery, it was believed Arkansas could be made a loyal State in ninety days, with her representatives in Congress. It is even said that Judge Sebastian, who still holds a seat in the Senate, from Arkansas, will claim it the next session, having never forfeited it by any act of disloyalty.

Recent advices from the Mississippi state that over 100,000 bales of cotton belonging to the rebel Government have been captured near Natchez. When this news reaches England, we may expect to hear of another tumble in the rebel cotton loan. Gen. Herron is reported to be on an expedition up the Red River.

Western dispatches bring us a report that Gen. Pemberton, of Vicksburgh fame, is dead—having been shot at Selma, Ala., last week, by a Texan soldier.

The Toronto Leader, of yesterday, made the sensation announcement that a plot had been discovered, the purpose of which was to deliver Canada into the power of the United States, and that Mr. Archibald, the British Consul in this City, had communicated the facts to the British authorities. Mr. Archibald says he has no knowledge of any such treasonable plot, and positively denies the statement that he has communicated the facts to the British authorities. The whole report, he says, without a doubt, is entirely unfounded.

A dispatch received in Boston reports the following blockade runners at Bermuda on the 4th inst.: British steamers Gibraltar, Banshee, Harriet Pinckney, Mail, Ella, Gladiator, Spalding and Juno; also the rebel steamers Lady Davis, Eugene and Advance. The pirate Sumter was also in port. She has two guns which measure seven feet and eight inches around the breech.

FROM EUROPE.

By the arrival of the Persia at this port yesterday, we receive advices from Europe to the 16th inst., three days later. The news is not specially important, though it presents some features of interest. It is announced positively, that the Archduke Maximilian has accepted the throne of Mexico, and it is even hinted that his acceptance was made sure of before it was offered to him. A ship which had arrived in England from Sydney, reported having been on the 28th of June boarded by a boat's crew from a ship represented to be an American cruiser. A man with no uniform on, commanding the boat, demanded the ship's papers, which were refused. The man then left threatening to fire into the vessel, but he did not do so. The alleged American cruiser is supposed to have been a pirate. A Plymouth paper calls attention to a suspicious sale of three British vessels of war at that port. Circumstances are said to justify a suspicion that they are intended for the rebel Government. The notes of the three Powers to Russia regarding Poland, had been dispatched to St. Petersburgh. They are said to terminate in an identical paragraph. The Liverpool Cotton Market was firm, but with no change in price. Breadstuffs were flat and Provisions firm. Consols were quoted at 93@93¼ for money.

GENERAL NEWS.

The steamship North Star, from Aspinwall, arrived at this port yesterday, with mails and passengers from California, and about $223,000 in treasure. See also brings late news from South and Central America, which is not specially important. The President elect of Panama, Gen. Santa Coloma, arrived from the interior on the 11th inst., and was duly inaugurated on the 13th. In Chili, an unsuccessful attempt had been made to displace the present Government. In Uruguay, Gen. Flores is said to be having great success. On the 2d of June, a part of his forces gained a complete victory over 1,000 of the Government troops. It is reported that President Berro has given up all hopes of a successful resistance. The North Star, which arrived at Aspinwall on the 13th inst. from New-York, experienced a heavy gale. The ship was at one time in such great danger that it was found necessary to throw a portion of her cargo overboard. The mails taken out by her reached Aspinwall in a sad condition—so thoroughly saturated with salt water that in many instances the directions were almost illegible; in some cases the wrappers of packages had fallen off, so it was impossible to tell who the parcels were for.

The Board of Aldermen met at 1 o'clock P. M. yesterday, and concurred in the resolution previously passed by the Councilmen, pledging themselves to override the Mayor's veto on the draft exemption ordinance, at the expiration of ten days. The question of adopting the resolution permitted an opportunity for speech-making on the Mayor's veto message, which was embraced by Mr. Jeremiah, who discussed it at length; by Mr. Fromont, who expressed a desire to see a new ordinance framed upon which the Common Council and the Mayor can all agree, in order that there may be unity of action by the City authorities, and who had been informed that the Mayor would carry his opposition so far as to refuse to sign the bonds to be issued when the ordinance shall be legalized, or to sign warrants to draw any money from the new fund; and by Mr. Hardy, who said that the law permitted the money to be raised and expended in such manner as the Mayor and Common Council, as a Relief Committee, may prescribe, and would allow them to issue bonds and use the money without the Mayor's signature. The Board adjourned to 1 o'clock P. M. on Monday.

Commander Walke went up the Yazoo, a few days since, with instructions to attempt to save the gunboat De Kalb. He found this impossible, and therefore destroyed her, first having removed her guns and everything of value.

Capt. John Saunders, of the Sixty-ninth New-York regiment, who was recently reported to have been Court-martialed and deprived of one month's pay, for "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman," was honorably discharged, on June 12, in consequence of the consolidation of his company.

The Stock market was depressed yesterday, and the general tendency of prices was toward a lower range. New-York Central Shares closed at 133½; Erie, 119½; Hudson, 145½; Harlem, 169½. Money was in more demand on call at 6 ₩ cent. Gold advanced to 123⅛, with limited sales. Sterling Exchange, 135⅛. The China, for Liverpool, took out $209,241 in specie. The North Star, from Aspinwall, had a treasure freight of $229,854.

Breadstuffs were generally in less demand yesterday, closing heavily. Pork was the only active article in the Provision line. Sugars were in fair request, as were also Hay, Hops, Whisky and Sole Leather. Petroleum was sold freely, and at advanced prices. Cotton was extremely quiet. Another monthly sale of Scranton Coal took place during the day, at which 25,000 tons found buyers, prices ranging from $5 80@$7 15 ₩ ton. A number of auction sales of Dry Goods were also held, at most of which the attendance was good, and the bidding tolerably spirited, particularly for all really desirable fabrics, adapted to the immediate requirements of buyers. A catalogue of Boots and Shoes was disposed of quite advantageously. Other branches of trade presented no really new features. There were 609 vessels of all classes in port.

The Party of the Future.

What party is to be in power after the war closes? It is a question which exercises many minds; and it is beginning, even thus early, to shape combinations and plans and preferences for candidates. Opinions about it differ. Some believe that the increased Anti-Slavery spirit of the country will guarantee the Republican party a new lease of power. Others that the influence of the old Democratic party over the South will cause the people to devolve upon that party the work of reconciliation. Others still that some new party, under some new name, untrammeled by previous commitments, and obnoxious to no old prejudice, will be entrusted with the control of the new situation.

This sort of calculation is untimely, and ought not to be encouraged. The duties of the present ought to command the exclusive attention of the public mind, without distracting it with any concern for the future. Our sole business now is the effective prosecution of the war to its only legitimate end, the extinction of the rebellion. When that end is gained, then, and then only, will be the time to decide what shall be done next, and who shall do it. Duties in the war and duties after the war are altogether distinct and separate; and wisdom requires that they should be attended to each in its own season. We are to rescue the Union before we determine how to manage it when rescued.

Yet, if any class of politicians will insist on forecasting the political future, they may be certain of one thing: the successful party will be the party most thoroughly National in spirit. It may have other marks and characteristics, but this will be the distinctive and the decisive one. It may call itself by whatever name it pleases; it may lay claim to any antecedents or try to commend itself as having no antecedents, and yet it will be judged by this test first of all. And the test will be a practical one; mere professions of devotion to the Union will go for nothing. The country has learned completely that all that kind of talk is worthless. Many of the foremost rebels indulged in it up to the very day of their committing their first overt act of treason. Many, too, of the most notorious rebel sympathizers since the war began, have kept up an unceasing protestation of undying affection for the Union, as a seeming accompaniment to all their efforts to obstruct the war, and secure success for the rebels. This inconsistency between word and act has impressed itself upon the popular mind too deeply to be soon forgotten. On this subject, at least for a good many years to come, language has lost all power of deception. The stern reality of the war has made men very quick to detect mere pretence, and very impatient of that sort of rhetoric called buncombe, which used to be so effective. The issues now are too momentous to permit easy compliance. Hard facts force themselves upon the judgment with an authority not to be resisted. The party whose nationality cannot stand this test is predestined to defeat.

The Lawrence Massacre—An Appeal.

Instead of the reports of Quantrell's massacre at Lawrence growing less as the truth in regard to it reaches us, they grow greater and more horrible. The details which we publish this morning make the blood run cold; and, alas! they can no longer be discredited—they cannot be characterized as exaggerations. Two hundred citizens, some say 300—nearly all the more respectable people of the place—butchered at their own hearthstones in the early dawn of the morning. Two hundred houses—nearly all the better houses of the town—fired and reduced to ruins. Nearly a hundred wives made widows in an hour, and two hundred and fifty children made orphans forever. Most of these are now houseless, penniless and friendless, mourning for their dead amid the ruins of their homes, far out on the wild plains west of the Missouri. It is a case for our deepest sympathy, for our promptest charity.

During the last year we have made urgent appeals in the Times to the liberal-souled merchants of New-York for aid and relief to the starved operatives of Lancashire, to our sick and suffering soldiers in hospitals and in the field, to the persecuted blacks of this City; and all of these appeals have been met by responses so munificent as to reflect everlasting glory upon New-York. The case of the widows and orphans of Lawrence is another case which merits instant attention. There is not as much required as in the case of Lancashire, or of our army, or of the negroes; but money is wanted to furnish shelter for the houseless, clothing for the naked, food for the penniless life to the orphans. Leavenworth has sent a little temporary relief, but this is altogether inadequate to the appalling emergency. Will not some of the noble-hearted gentlemen of New-York, whose ears are ever open to the cry of distress, and who are always prompt to take the lead in labors of charity, take up the case of these our heart-stricken countrymen in the Far West, and send at least such relief as will provide shelter, clothing and comfort for the widows and orphans? The suffering of soul which overwhelms Lawrence should not be aggravated by the tortures of bodily want, if it be in our power to prevent or alleviate it.

North Carolina and the Union.

It is not strange that North Carolina should be unsteady in the traces of treason. It is only strange that she should have ever suffered herself to be hitched into them. Nothing could have been less expected than the unresisting submission of "The Old North State" to the imperious secession mandate of her neighbor on the South, between whom and herself no sympathy ever existed.

Prior to the rebellion the old North State had been second to none in dignity, patriotism, steadiness and good sense. She was not in the habit of blowing her trumpet and proclaiming to the world her matchless bravery; and even when she fell into the folly of rebellion, she did not, like her brethren of the Southern Gascony, wax red in the face in windy announcements that one of her soldiers could whip ten Yankees, and that her whole population was ready to "die in the last ditch," &c. There had been no ill blood between her people and the people of the North, but much of mutual respect and good will, and friendly intercourse. Her business men—the producing whites, the "plain people"—had no interest, general or local, which was not in harmony with the Union; and her obedience to the South Carolina decree was as discreditable and suicidal as such obedience would have been for Pennsylvania or New-York.

She is beginning to realize this. She has suffered from secession to an almost incredible extent. Her industrial interests are paralyzed. Tar and turpentine and corn no longer yield her rich revenues—and she sees nothing achieved or in prospect to repay her for the destruction of her Government and her prosperity, or for the rivers of blood which she has shed at the bidding of South Carolina and Jeff. Davis. She has been drawn upon by the Richmond Junta without mercy, for men and means. No less than 90,000 of her sons have been dragged into the rebel army, where they have been constantly thrust into every situation of hardship, exposure, drudgery and peril, as though the object was to impose on them the chief burden of treason, while they could derive no benefit from its success. "Sic vos non vobis." The Richmond Press has constantly teemed with tumid eulogies of the unearthly valor of the rest of the rebel army, beginning with the complete exhaustion of the English language in glorification (compared with which Ossian was prosy) of the achievement of the capture of ninety men at Fort Sumter by six thousand South Carolinians. But while the "plain people" of North Carolina have borne the brunt of many a bloody field, her name is hardly mentioned. The soldiers of South Carolina have rarely been heard of as either numerous, exposed or hurt; but they take "all the honors." The "chivalry" and the Confederate Government alike treat the North Carolina troops as "common people," for whom it is honor enough to serve such masters.

Moreover, they have striven to take to themselves the control of the State, by the election over her of one of their own men, whom they had the adroitness and impudence to force upon her as a candidate. But their schemes failed, and Gov. Vance was elected. More lately she is treated with less and less courtesy. The offices of tithing men and collectors of taxes within her limits are not to be filled by her own citizens, but men from other parts of rebeldom are quartered on her to administer this branch of rebel government. And now come signs of restiveness. The sons of those who ordained the Declaration of Independence at Mecklenburgh, are not likely much longer to submit to such masters.

Moreover, the North Carolinians believe in republican government, and rub their eyes with amazement to find that they are under rulers who are ready to sell them out to England and France. They cannot for their lives help feeling pride in remembering their security under the Stars and Stripes, and they recoil from the idea of becoming vassals of England or protéges of France.

The time is at hand when the masses in all the Southern States will cease to be mere hewers of wood and drawers of water for the clique of petty potentates, whose claim to rule has no loftier title than the ownership of negroes. When that time comes, the Copperhead mercenaries at the North, who have been as obedient to the Ebony Oligarchy as its own negroes—yes, more so, for the negroes would always escape if they could—will turn a very short corner, and be vociferous champions of those very masses whom they have always aided in subjugating to the interests of the oligarchy.

The course of North Carolina is plain. It is but to follow the dictates of common sense, cease from works of treason, obey and enforce the laws, take her place again in the public councils and among the faithful and honorable States of the Union, from which position she fell, she knows not how.

The Invisible Confederacy.—The fall in the English rebel loan indicates the falling hopes of the rebellion in the eyes of foreign financial speculators. In the eyes of English military speculators the fortunes of the Confederacy are far lower than is represented by 25 discount. In the Army and Navy Gazette that came by last mail, our old friend, Mr. Russell, gives a luminous and accurate roll of the splendid military and naval victories recently gained by the Union arms; and after doing so, he comes to the philosophical, metaphysical, historical and creditable conclusion that "it requires philosophy, metaphysics, historical parallels and immense faith to believe that the South can continue her resistance to the North in the field, or preserve her States from the sway of Washington proconsuls."

This conclusion certainly shows Mr. Russell to be possessed of eminent military sagacity; but we may say that instead of the great intellectual forces and processes which he enumerates tending to a belief in rebel success, they all lead in the opposite direction. It is so, at all events, with "philosophy, metaphysics, and historical parallels," and as for "faith," since St. Paul, in his celebrated definition of that grace, characterizes it as the "evidence of things not seen," we suppose that the more invisible and intangible the Confederacy becomes, the more firmly will British faith—"immense faith"—cling to it. Immense prejudice would be a better name for the quality than immense faith.

Another Guerrilla Trapped.—Jeff. Thompson, the "swamp fox of Southern Missouri," the rebel guerrilla, whose deeds of robbery and murder have made him as notorious in Missouri as John Morgan was in Kentucky and Tennessee, has, like his brother fox and bandit, Morgan, been trapped at last. His capture will be a great relief to Missouri, and it only remains now that Quantrell be caught and hung—for of course such a monster is beyond the pale of military law—to secure comparative peace and order in that State.

Now that the soldiers of the West have triumphantly finished the grander operations of the war in the Mississippi Valley, they are devoting themselves with great success to the extirpation of the guerrillas, who, as the rebels have so often told us, are to succeed their great armies in carrying on the rebellion. After they root the whole of them out, we hope some of these experienced Western hunters will come to Virginia and see if they cannot hunt out Mosby, Imboden and Jenkins, the former of whom has lately been scouting literally within sight of Washington. Who will catch these scoundrels, and thus save to the country the millions of dollars worth of property which they destroy every week or two?

Quick Returns.—The Alabama Legislature met in extra session at Montgomery on the 19th inst., and the Senate at once passed the following resolution:

Whereas, In the opinion of this General Assembly, the people and the army have lost confidence in Gens. Holmes and Pemberton, without questioning the integrity, patriotism or loyalty of either of said Generals,

Resolved, That the interest of the service, and the good of the cause we so dearly love, imperatively demand a change in the commands of these respective Generals.

The resolution was hardly passed—indeed we do not know that it was passed—when the first of the officers named, Gen. Holmes, died of delirium tremens; and this morning we have a telegram that the other officer, Gen. Pemberton, is also dead, having, it is said, been killed by a Texan soldier some day last week—probably on the 19th. "These respective Generals" both "changed their commands" without the intervention of Jeff. Davis, for which the Alabama Legislature called.

Personal.

—Sir Henry Holland, the eminent London physician, who arrived yesterday in the Persia, will receive a cordial welcome from his numerous and attached friends in America. Sir Henry remains with us until the 30th of September. He goes to Newport to-morrow to visit Mr. Bancroft and other friends, and from thence to Boston.

Amusements.

Brooklyn Academy of Music.—The second night of Mr. Bowpach's brief season at the Brooklyn Academy drew forth the largest audience we have ever seen at a dramatic performance in the City of Churches. The farce which precedes the fearful drama was capitally given, and literally "screamed the house." The "Ghost" was all the fancy of the audience had painted it, and exacted the usual tribute of shiverings, tears and screams from the gaping throngs. To-morrow night the bill will be repeated for the last time.

THE LAWRENCE MASSACRE.

Another Account of the Terrible Tragedy.

Leavenworth, Monday, Aug. 24.

The Conservative publishes the following account of the Lawrence massacre from one of its editors, just returned from the ruins:

We arrived in Lawrence at 7 o'clock. Flying rumors had painted a terrible picture, but the reality exceeded the reports.

We found Massachusetts-street one mass of smouldering ruins and crumbling walls, the light from which cast a sickening glare upon the little knots of excited men and distracted women, gazing upon the ruins of their once happy homes and prosperous business. Only two business-houses were left upon this street—one known as the Armory, and the other as the old Miller block.

About 125 houses, in all, were burned, and only one or two escaped, being ransacked, and everything of value carried away or destroyed.

Six or eight soldiers, who camped upon this side of the river, and who fired across at every rebel who appeared upon the bank, deterred the cowards from destroying some of the houses near the ferry, and from cutting down the flag-pole. The force of the rebels is variously estimated from 250 to 400.

Reliable parties place it at 300. Their every act during their stay in the city was characterized by the most cowardly barbarism. They entered the town on the gallop, firing into every house, and when the occupants appeared at the door they were shot down like dogs. Five bodies, burned to a crisp, lay near the ruins of the Eldridge House. They could not be recognized. Eighteen out of twenty-two unarmed recruits, encamped south of the town, were murdered in their tents. Their bodies lay in the colored church when we arrived. Messrs. Trask, Dr. Griswold, Baker and Thorp, were shot down in the yard of Dr. Griswold, before the eyes of their families. Judge Carpenter was wounded in his yard, and fell, when his wife and sister threw themselves upon his body, begging for mercy, but to no avail. The fiends dismounted, stuck their pistols between the persons of his protectors, and fired.

Miss Stone, daughter of the proprietor of the City Hotel, had a diamond ring stolen from her finger. Quantrell ordered the man to restore it. In revenge for this the ruffians afterward came back and shot her father before the mother's eyes. They also tried to kill Miss Stone.

Gen. Collamore went into his well to hide, and the bad air killed him. His son and Pat. Keefe lost their lives trying to get the father out.

The life of District-Attorney Riggs was saved by the heroism of his wife, who seized the bridle of the rebel's horse, who attempted to shoot him as he ran.

Several cases of remarkable bravery of women were related to us. The wife of Sheriff Brown three successive times put out the fire kindled to burn the house. Her husband was hidden under the floor. The house was saved by her heroism.

The offices of the Journal, Tribune and Republican, were of course leveled to the ground. John Speer, Jr., of the Tribune, started for his home from the office after the rebels came in. Mr. Murdoch, a printer in the office, tried to induce him to accompany him into a well near by for safety, but he would do nothing but go home to defend the house, which he did, and was killed. Murdoch went into the well and was saved. A younger son of John Speer, Sen., killed a rebel and left. The guests at the Eldridge House were ordered out, their rooms pillaged, and some of the people shot. Two men from Ohio were wounded there, and are now in this city. Only the presence and peremptory orders of Quantrell prevented the massacre of all the occupants after they had been marched out on the street.

The rebels were told that there was a negro baby still in the house, but they said, "We will burn the G—d—n little brat," and they did. We saw its charred remains, burned black as the heart of its murderers. The books of the County and District Clerks were burned, but those of the Register of Deeds were in the safe, and are supposed to have been saved. Every safe in the city but two were robbed. In the Eldridge store, James Eldridge and James Perrine gave the rebels all the money in the safe, and were instantly shot down. All the hotels were destroyed, except the City Hotel. The loss in cash is estimated at $250,000, and in property and all at $2,000,000. That is a low enough estimate.

The number of bodies, up to the time we left, was 113, of which about 20 were burned so badly as to render recognition impossible. There were a large number of strangers in town, and when the entire loss is ascertained we think it will reach 150 killed. Many were, doubtless, killed by the rebel pickets in the brush.

The people have not yet recovered from the terrible blow sufficiently to appreciate the full force of their desolation; and when they do recover from the shock, many more will doubtless be missing.

We have seen battle-fields and scenes of carnage and bloodshed, but have never witnessed a spectacle so horrible as that seen among the smouldering ruins at Lawrence. No fighting, no resistance—cold-blooded murder was there.

The fiends finished their murderous work in nearly every case. The list is all white men. A few negroes were killed, but we did not get their names: John Fromley, J. C. Trask, of the State Journal; Gen. G. W. Collamer and son, James Eldridge, Jas. Perrine, Joseph Eldridge, Joseph Lowe, Dr. Griswold, druggist; Wm. Williamson, Deputy Marshal; S. M. Thorp, State Senator; Judge Lewis Carpenter, John Speer, Jr., of Kansas Tribune; Nathan Stone, City Hotel; Mr. Brant, Mr. West, Thomas Murphy, Mr. T. Fitch, bookbinder at the Journal office; E. P. Fitch, bookseller; Chas. Palmer, of the Journal; Lemuel Gilmore, James O'Neal, John Doyle, D. C. Allison, the firm of Duncan & Allison; J. Z. Evans, Levi Gates, George Burt, Samuel Jones, George Coates, John S. Gill, Ralph E. Dix, Stephen Dix, Capt. George W. Ball, County Clerk; John C. Cornell, A. Kridmiller, George Albrecht, S. Duninski, Robert Martin, Otis Longley, John W. Lowrie, William Lowrie, James Roach, Michael Meeking, Louis Wise and infant, Joseph Batchelbauer, August Ellis, Dennis Murphy, John K. Zimmerman, Carl Enzler, George Range, Samuel Range, Jacob Pollok, Fred. Klaus, Fred. Kimball, Dwight Colman, Mr. Carle, Daniel McClellan, Rev. S. S. Snyder, Samuel Reynolds, Geo. Garrard, A. W. Griswold, Chas. Key, Chas. Amen, Jas. Wilfon, Chas. Rigen, A. J. Woods, Chas Anderson, W. B. Griswold, A. C. Cooper, Asbury Markle, David Markle, Lewis Markle, Aaron Holdeman, Addison Fraugh.

Persons just from Lawrence report that the number of dead will reach 170, perhaps 200, as bodies are constantly being found.

The excitement throughout the State is intense and our citizens unanimously regard the Lawrence massacre as a legitimate fruit of the Schofield-Ewing policy in Missouri and Kansas.

When last heard from, Gen. Lane was at Hickman's Mills, Missouri, with half-clothed, half-armed men in pursuit. He attacked Quantrell about 10 miles south of Lawrence, and kept up a running fight with him to Missouri, killing up to this time 19 of the rebels.

Maj. Plumb was at Blue, not five miles east of Lawrence, when Quantrell left the town; he failed to aid Lane. Reports say Plumb's men denounced him for beginning to attack Quantrell, who offered him battle at one point near Ottowa. Lane headed off Quantrell. The rebels turned and charged on Plumb, and drove him for about a mile.

Ewing had a telegraph from his Adjutant, at Kansas City, the night before the attack on Lawrence, but did not leave here until 2 o'clock P. M. the next day. He then went to Desoto Ferry, about 25 miles south of this place, and 10 miles east of Lawrence. At noon on Saturday he was only 10 miles south of Desoto. He ought to have taken the steamer Emelie, which was at our levee, and then leaving at the late hour he did, he could have overtaken Quantrell, and with all fresh men and horses, he could have captured him.

THE LATEST PARTICULARS.

St. Louis, Wednesday, Aug. 26.

A special dispatch from Leavenworth to the Democrat says Jim Lane has returned to Lawrence. The citizens with Lane killed 41 of Quantrell's men. Lane is organizing a force which, he says, will go into Missouri early in September.

Martial law has been published in Leavenworth.

One hundred and eighty-three bodies had been buried in Lawrence up to this morning, and seven more bodies have been found. One hundred and eighty-two buildings have been burned—eighty of them brick. Eighty-five widows and two hundred and forty-five orphans have been made by Quantrell's raid.

Several merchants have commenced rebuilding. All the towns in the State have sent in large sums of money for the relief of the sufferers.

A report has just been received that buildings in Cass County, Missouri, were fired, and over one hundred rebel sympathizers were killed.

Those who within that time prove their loyalty to the satisfaction of the commanding officer of the military station nearest their present place of residence, will receive from him certificates, stating the fact of their loyalty, and the names of the witnesses by whom it can be sworn. All who have received such certificates will be permitted to remove to any military station in this district, or to any part of the State of Kansas except the counties on the eastern border of the State. All others shall remove out of this district. Officers commanding companies and detachments serving in companies will see that this paragraph is promptly obeyed.

Second—All grain, hay in the field or under shelter in the district from which the inhabitants are required to remove within reach of military stations after the 9th of Sept. next, will be taken to such stations and turned over to the proper officers there, and a report of the amount so turned over made to District Headquarters, specifying the names of all loyal owners and the amount of such produce taken from them. All grain and hay found in such districts after the 9th of September next, not convenient to such stations, will be destroyed.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

Washington, Wednesday, Aug. 26.

AFFAIRS IN JAPAN.

Dispatches from Commander McDougal, at Yokohama, dated May 16, older than those last sent to the Times, represent that all trade was stopped, and that the Japanese merchants had most all withdrawn from the city; that many of the native servants had left, and that those who remained stayed only on daily wages. Three American merchants had been attacked by a mob, and barely escaped with their lives. The party throughout Japan opposed to foreigners, and disposed to do everything in their power to prevent concession to the English, is large and powerful.

THE ARREST OF C. EDWARDS LESTER.

C. Edwards Lester, arrested at Harper's Ferry on Monday, was a clerk in the Paymaster-General's Office, engaged in examining the accounts of the Paymasters. The position offered him no opportunity of obtaining any secrets of the Secretary's Office. He left here on pretence of visiting Baltimore, to have a surgical operation performed upon one of his legs, but soon turned up at Harper's Ferry, where he represented himself as a special agent of the War Department, and proceeded to inspect the fortifications, asking a variety of questions. His authority was called for, and not producing it, he was arrested, and a dispatch concerning him sent to the War Department. He was ordered to be examined. It is said that papers that implicated him were found upon his person. Mr. Lester was brought here yesterday, under military escort, and left last evening for Baltimore, where he will probably be tried as a spy. The more charitable opinion in his case is that he wandered off to Harper's Ferry, in company with "John Barleycorn," and came to grief from the associations. He has been dismissed from his clerkship.

THE OPERATIONS OF MOSEBY.

Mosby's operations in our immediate front are assuming rather gigantic proportions. From a band of sixty desperadoes, his force has grown to eight hundred able bodied guerrillas, who prey upon everything which passes between Fairfax and Warrenton. Early this morning, with his whole force, he attacked a sutler's train between Centreville and Bull Run, captured forty-one wagons with their teams, a number of Government horses, and much other property, on its way to the army.

WEST POINT.

The President, Gen. Halleck and the Secretary of War, were engaged yesterday in filling the appointments to the Military Academy at West Point, from the rebel States. Most of the appointments will of course come from the North and West. The applicants for this patronage are legion in number.

PENSIONS.

The Secretary of the Interior has decided that under the third section of the Pension act, July 14, 1862, the illegitimacy of a son is no bar to a mother's claim to a pension. Under this decision, so much of the instructions and forms of the Pension office as relates to proofs of marriage in mothers' claims, have been annulled.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Washington, Wednesday, Aug. 26.

CHARLESTON.

Gentlemen attached to the public service say that in the shelling of Charleston at a distance of five miles a greater success has been attained with the Parrott guns than has heretofore entered into their calculations. Even the rebel accounts of the recent movements against Charleston are regarded here as affording a cheering prospect of complete Union success. The Navy Department has received no official advices within the last two days from that quarter.

IMPORTS AT SAN FRANCISCO.

It appears from statements received at the Treasury Department that during the month of July $416,889 were received for duties at San Francisco, which is, therefore, the next port in importance to New-York as far as the revenue is concerned. The revenue of Tuesday, July 28, was $55,000—the largest sum ever received there in a single day.

A CANADIAN CANARD.

Reported Plot to Deliver Canada over to the United States.

Toronto, Wednesday, Aug. 26.

The Leader of to-day announces the discovery of a treasonable plot to betray Canada into the hands of the Lincoln Government, and says Mr. Archibald, the British Consul at New-York, has communicated the facts to the British authorities.

[The above dispatch from Toronto is unquestionably a canard. It is ascertained from well-informed persons that there is no knowledge whatever in British official circles of such a movement.—Ed. Times.]

THE SIEGE OF CHARLESTON.

Shells Passing Through Fort Sumter.

Interesting Statements by Deserters.

The Rebels Preparing to Evacuate the Place.

Beauregard Given 48 Hours to Remove the Women and Children from Charleston.

OFF CHARLESTON, Friday noon, Aug. 21.

Shells go into the fort and explode inside, some of them passing through the east wall, going in one side and coming out of the other.

An easterly storm prevailed on Tuesday and Wednesday, but broke away on Thursday.

We now have fine weather, and it is expected that the Monitors will go in force to Sumter this afternoon.

The Ironsides and our wooden vessels have shelled Wagner and Gregg every day, keeping them quiet, while our shore batteries are hammering Sumter.

They say the rebels are preparing to abandon Sumter and blow it up; that they have been taking the guns out of it ever since the attack upon it in April last, which demonstrated their inability to hold it; that there are not more than six or eight guns now in the fort, the remainder being "quakers;" that the cordon of beer barrels are merely intended to sustain the telegraph wire between Sumter and Moultrie, and are no part of the obstructions of the harbor; that the North Carolina troops are anxious to go home, and are almost in a state of mutiny; that the rebels all anticipate the fall of Charleston; that the walls of Sumter were extensively breached in April, and that there is a great scarcity of provisions among the rebels.

The flag of Sumter has been shot away four times and now there is no flag up.

The rebel batteries on James Island throw shells night and day into our lines, but do not cause more than one or two casualties daily.

Admiral DAHLGREN is anxious to let the army and naval battery finish Sumter, expecting to have plenty of work for the Monitors in taking the interior line of defences of Charleston.

A flag of truce was sent to Wagner on Friday morning, and firing ceased during the interview, when it was resumed again.

Gen. GILLMORE notified Gen. BEAUREGARD that he would commence to shell the city within forty-eight hours, requesting him to remove the women and children.

The whole Monitor fleet went up on Friday night for another assault upon Sumter.

The Passaic got aground, and so much time was lost in getting her off that the expedition was abandoned for the night. The rebels did not discover her position, though she was within half a mile of the fort.

OFF CHARLESTON BAR, Saturday, Aug. 22.

Sumter, this morning, is an immense ruin.

The rear wall is battered down, and the interior of the fort is open to view.

The flag of Sumter was shot away four times on Friday. A new flag is up this morning.

The weather is very hot, and no ice is to be had; nothing but warm, condensed water.

Should there be no accident to-night, the old flag will float over Sumter to-morrow (Sunday).

REBEL REPORTS.

The Richmond Enquirer of Aug. 25 contains the following:

CHARLESTON, Wednesday, Aug. 24—Evening.

The fire of the enemy on Sumter has slackened to-day. The fleet has not participated in the attack.

At 12 o'clock last night the enemy's guns opened on the city fifteen 8-inch Parrott shells.

Non-combatants are leaving the city in continuous streams.

A Rumored Raid of Our Forces Toward Staunton, Va.

The Richmond Enquirer of Aug. 25 has these interesting telegrams:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Monday, Aug. 24.

Yesterday morning the frigate Minnesota and six gunboats bombarded Fort Fisher, where the steamer Hebe ran aground some days ago. She being protected by two small guns and fifty men, the enemy attempted to land, but were repulsed with one killed. Being reinforced, the enemy finally succeeded in destroying the goods landed from the steamer and set her on fire. We lost one killed, three wounded, a Whitworth and another small gun. Our forces were Whitworth and another small gun. Our forces were in possession of the wreck last evening.

STAUNTON, Va., Monday, Aug. 24.

Considerable excitement was created here to-day by scouts reporting that the Yankees were near Buffalo Gap, on a raid to Staunton.

Preparations were made for their reception. Business was suspended, and the old and young men turned out en masse to meet the enemy, but they were non est.

It is reported that the Yankees have crossed into Highland. Gen. IMBODEN is after them, and Staunton has again relapsed into its placid state of tranquillity.

There is nothing important from the Lower Valley.

LOSS OF THE U. S. BRIG BAINBRIDGE.

Additional Particulars of the Disaster.

From the Philadelphia Ledger, Aug. 26.

Yesterday we briefly announced the loss of the United States brig Bainbridge, in the gale off Hatteras, on the 21st, she having foundered with all on board except one person. This vessel left New-York on Monday, the 17th, for Port Royal, was caught in the storm of the 21st and foundered, turning bottom upward. The following particulars were got from the person who was saved—a colored seaman—the only person known to be saved out of eighty persons.

The Bainbridge was fitted out in New-York. She was about 300 tons burden, carried seven guns, and her officers and crew numbered between 75 and 80. On the morning of the 21st inst., when off Hatteras, the brig was struck by a squall and capsized. One of the crew, a mulatto, named JOSEPH WHITE, was swept overboard, and fortunately came in contact with a plank, which he used for supporting himself. Soon afterward he floated near a boat belonging to the brig, in which was the ship's cook. WHITE managed to get into the boat with the cook, and floated at the mercy of the waves. During the day the cook drank salt water to such an extent that he became crazy, and while in that condition jumped overboard, and was drowned. WHITE stuck to the boat, though it leaked badly, and on the afternoon of the day the brig was capsized he was picked up by Capt. LANE, of the South Boston, from Barbados to this port. The negro WHITE states that when he last saw the Bainbridge she was bottom up, and his opinion was that all her officers and crew were drowned. The boat in which WHITE was saved is now at the Navy-yard, having been delivered there yesterday by Capt. LANE, of the South Boston. WHITE was sent on board the receiving ship.

TESTIMONIALS.

The following are a few of the many testimonials received, and are submitted with confidence; others, as well as references to parties of the highest respectability, residing in this City, will be cheerfully furnished on application:

NEW-YORK, June 17, 1863.

Dr. Lighthill has succeeded in restoring to perfect hearing my right ear, which has been deaf for some time, caused by a cold. As I am obliged to leave for New-Orleans in a few days, those who may wish to make further inquiries may call on my brother, Mr. H. C. Potter, No. 78 Reade-st., firm of Streeter, Faxon & Potter, who will be happy to give any information desired.

O. O POTTER, Capt. and A. Q. M., Department of the Gulf.

NEW-YORK, April 18, 1863.

A little daughter of mine has been affected with a troublesome discharge from both ears, the result of scarlet fever. Dr. Lighthill, under whose care I placed her, has removed the discharge completely, and improved her hearing. W. H. RAYNOR, No. 6 Pine-st.

From Rev. John Nott, D. D., Professor in Union College, Schenectady.

SCHENECTADY, Jan. 17, 1863.

Dr. Lighthill—

SIR: Having been cured by you of a discharge in an ear, which has been very offensive of late, and as far back as I can remember, always more or less so; and having been entirely restored to hearing since under your care, I feel that I cannot withhold this acknowledgment from any use it may be to others, especially as I have applied in vain to my family physician and other physicians of reputation. Yours, truly, JOHN NOTT.

CATARRH CURED.

From Rev. P. R. Russell, Lynn, Mass.

I have been much troubled with catarrh of the worst type for some twenty years. It gradually grew worse, producing cough and hoarseness, destroying the sense of smell, and breaking down my general health to such a degree as to compel me to resign my pastorate, and suspend public speaking.

I made diligent use of the usual remedies, such as snuffs of different kinds, nitrate of silver, tar water, olive tar and inhalations, but without any very salutary effects. Last Summer I heard of Dr. Lighthill's successful mode of treating catarrh, visited him, and put myself under his treatment. I began immediately to improve, and this improvement has gone on to the present time. My catarrh has gradually melted away, my cough has disappeared, my voice has become natural, and I am once more able to preach the blessed Gospel. Let me advise all troubled with catarrhal difficulties to apply to Dr. Lighthill.

P. R. RUSSELL.

LYNN, Mass., Feb. 1, 1862.

No. 740 WATER-ST., NEW-YORK, June 5, 1862.

Dr. Lighthill has succeeded in completely restoring my hearing, which was seriously impaired, although previous to applying to him I was treated by several physicians without the least benefit. Any further information I should be pleased to render on application to me at my residence, No. 173 Second-st., Brooklyn, E. D., or at my place of business, No. 740 Water-st.

MUNN & CO.'S
ESTABLISHED 1842

During the past twenty years, Messrs. MUNN & Co., in connection with the publication of the WEEKLY ILLUSTRATED SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, (the only paper devoted to the Mechanic Arts in the country,) have acted as Attorneys for procuring letters patent in the United States and all foreign countries.

They would state that they have acted, during this period, as agents for more than

TWENTY THOUSAND INVENTORS!

In fact, they have become identified with the whole brotherhood of inventors and patentees, at home and abroad. Thousands of inventors for whom they have taken patents have addressed to them most flattering testimonials; and the wealth that has inured to the inventors whose patents were secured through their office, and afterward illustrated in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, would amount to many millions of dollars!

Messrs. MUNN & CO. never had a more efficient corps of draughtsmen and specification writers than those employed at present; and they are prepared to attend to patent business of all kinds, in the quickest time and on the most liberal terms.

For further information, send for a pamphlet, which contains the Patent Laws of the United States, and much other valuable information of importance to inventors and all others who own patent property. Also pamphlets of information furnished regarding the Patent Laws of all foreign countries.

DR. VON EISENBERG.

AGAIN NEW TESTIMONY.

READ.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. VON EISENBERG operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

WILLIAM LIDDLE,
Harlem, 120th-st., between 2d and 3d avs.

"NEW-YORK, May 6.

I was entirely deaf in my left ear, accompanied by a discharge. I placed myself under Dr. VON EISENBERG'S care, who, by his great skill, restored me to perfect hearing, in the short space of a few minutes, without giving me the slightest pain, and the discharge has ceased entirely. The Eustachian Tube, which was obliterated, is quite open, and I feel that the air-passage performs its functions. I am amply satisfied, and recommend every one suffering from impaired hearing to place themselves under the treatment of this eminent and successful physician.

THOMAS GRAHAM, No. 539 6th-av."

"NEW-YORK, May 7, 1863.

I have great pleasure to testify to the skill of Dr. VON EISENBERG. I went into his office almost completely deaf, and came out with my perfect hearing. It is nearly twelve months since, and the hearing is perfect. The operation, which lasted two or three minutes in each of my ears, gave me no pain whatsoever. I, with confidence, recommend all sufferers to place themselves under Dr. VON EISENBERG'S unsurpassing skill.

SAMUEL C. HUNT,
No. 6 Meserole-av., Greenpoint, L. I."

No. 136 MADISON-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain. JOHN TAYLOR.

NEW-YORK, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with congulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CARROLL J. POST, No. 28 South-st.

SIGHT RESTORED.

JUNE 25, 1863.

My daughter brought me to Dr. VON EISENBERG almost completely blind in both eyes. I could not bear the pain nor the light. I am completely cured by Dr. VON EISENBERG, and called now to express my gratitude to the Doctor for his skill and unremitting attention, by which I recovered one of the most precious senses to me after being deprived of it for four years. It is only due to Dr. VON EISENBERG to state that I have tried several physicians in vain. I shall be happy to bear personal testimony to Dr. VON EISENBERG'S unrivaled success to any lady or gentleman who will call on me.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.

READ.

NEW-YORK, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

This is to certify that about 18 months ago, I commenced using STERLING'S AMBROSIA. My hair was short, thin, and rapidly falling off. I had tried many Hair Tonics, Invigorators, &c., without receiving any benefit. Soon after using the Ambrosia, my hair ceased falling out, and commenced growing so rapidly as to astonish me. Now my hair is thick, soft and glossy, and is five feet and four inches in length—when let down reaching to the floor. This wonderful result I attribute solely to the use of STERLING'S AMBROSIA, as since I have commenced using it I have applied nothing else to my hair. MRS. LUCY A. BROWN, No. 182 Bleecker-st.

"A REMARKABLE NOVEL."

HARPER & BROTHERS, NEW-YORK, PUBLISH THIS DAY:

LIVE IT DOWN.
A STORY OF THE LIGHT LANDS.
By J. C. JEAFFRESON,
Author of
"Olive Blake's Good Work," "Isabel; the Young Wife and the Old Love," &c.
8vo, paper, Fifty Cents.

"Live it Down," is a remarkable novel in every sense. The character of "Adelaide" is Mr. Jeaffreson's masterpiece. In it the author paints one of the noblest ideas of womanhood to be met with in the pages of fiction.—London Post.

The story is full, well considered, and well worked out. The interest is solid. The plot is broad, and the interest goes on increasing to the last page. The story is extremely well constructed. It is by far the best work of fiction Mr. Jeaffreson has yet written.

The moral worked out is, that men may not refuse any burden which is sent to them in God's Providence, whether it be by disgrace from the conduct of relations, or the consequences of some long-past sin of their own; that an humble trust in God is better than any scheming to escape or to hide the consequences of a wrong action. Such is the theme of this story; but the great charm lies in the working out of phases of inner life and character. This work contains knowledge which can only be learnt by having lived and suffered, and no one can read it without feeling helped and strengthened as by the words of a friend.

The scenes are too much interwoven with each other to bear detaching, but there are several highly dramatic situations. The interview between Alec Barber and John Braddock, the returned convict, when the former goes to threaten him in order to extort money, is like seeing a fencing-match between two skillful swordsmen; the episode of "Little Fan," the physician's daughter, may take its place beside little Dombey for its pathos.

The story is interesting throughout; the character stand well on their feet, and are real human beings, marked with individual character; and we recommend our readers to make acquaintance with them for themselves.—London Athenæum.

TO CAPITALISTS.
Wanted, capital to complete 20 miles, already graded, bridged, and ready for the superstructure, at the eastern terminus of the Root River Valley and Southern Minnesota Railroad.
This road, 279 miles in length, runs through the best and most fertile portion of the State of Minnesota, and a Land Grant of 3,840 acres per mile is secured to the Company by act of Congress, a large and valuable portion of which will come at once into market on the completion of the above 20 miles.
These lands are readily taken up at from $10 @ $15 per acre, and it is believed that, independent of the rest of the line, this 20 miles (from La Crosse, Wis., to Houston City, Min.,) would be immediately remunerative. The lands are free from taxation until resold.

DESERTERS.—The attention of all citizens is called to section 38 of the "Act for Enrolling and calling out the National Forces, and for other purposes," which is in the words following:

SEC. 38. "And be it further enacted, That every person not subject to the Rules and Articles of War, who shall procure, or entice, or attempt to procure or entice, a soldier in the service of the United States to desert; or who shall harbor, conceal, or give employment to a deserter, or carry him away, or aid in carrying him away, knowing him to be such; or who shall purchase from any soldier his arms, equipments, ammunition, uniform, clothing, or any part thereof; and any Captain or commanding officer of any ship or vessel, or any superintendent or conductor of any railroad, or any other public conveyance, carrying away any such soldier, as one of his crew or otherwise, knowing him to have deserted, or shall refuse to deliver him up to the order of his commanding officer, shall, upon legal conviction, be fined, at the discretion of any Court having cognizance of the same, in any sum not exceeding $500, and he shall be imprisoned, not exceeding two years nor less than six months."

The number of deserters from the United States Army from regiments new in the field, disguised and employed in this District, will cause the law in relation to employing or concealing them to be rigorously enforced, and all are warned against violating the preceding section.

Draft in the Ninth District.

Our readers probably remember the circumstances of murder and arson which interrupted on the 14th of July last the proceedings draftward in the Ninth District. Since that time until yesterday morning, Capt. JENKINS and his coadjutors have been quiescent, and the oracular wheel quite dumb, but peace being again restored, and good order kept in countenance by the scores of thousands of horse foot and dragoons which throng our City, the Marshal deemed it prudent and politic to resume operations, and let the "people go."

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the Captain opened proceedings at the headquarters, corner of West Forty-seventh-street and Seventh-avenue, in the third-story of a brick house which is variously tenanted. There was a very large crowd outside and inside, but all peaceably disposed.

The quota for the Twenty-second Ward in this District is 1,500; of these, 1,401 were drawn before the riot; the mob, however, destroyed 401 of them, leaving the number required exactly 500. The Committee appointed by Capt. JENKINS deposited in the wheel 3,810, and the Marshal announced that the draft would at once begin.

Commissioner SANDS, who fortunately escaped from the hands of the "great unwashed," was deputed to read the names; the attitudinous and embandaged blind man, Mr. BISHOP, who officiated in Capt. FARR'S District, took his stand by the wheel, and Mr. BENJ. V. PETTIT turned the wheel.

No names of especial prominence were drawn, and no incident in any way exciting occurred during the proceedings. Mr. EDWARD MOLLENHAUER, the well-known conductor of music at Winter Garden; Mr. D. F. MELLIER, a Tribune writer; a brother of Commissioner LAMONT, and several Policemen were appointed unto honor without their knowledge, while Mr. S. L. HULL was drawn twice.

To-day the Nineteenth Ward will be drawn. The ballots to be counted at 9 A. M. precisely.
